Scouting Report...

Indy Team v/s Go Getters (1-2)

The 1st game of the day got off to a slow start but quickly gained momentum. Thanks to the Indy Team's new additions Antonio & N'Deye. As usual, Mike was all over the beach with his awesome hustle & Sara was hurtin' em with her overhand serve. Somehow Go Getters managed to ward off the assault. Special mention goes to Brian Foster who provided the much needed musical entertainment via his Ipod and docking station. We love you man!!!!

BTrey v/s Da Heavy Hitters (3-0)

OMG!! The most anticipated match up of the summer. Da Heavy Hitters looked like they were going to redeem themselves against the humiliating loss in the winter championship game. The opening play Wendy nearly blocked Brian's spike attempt. The crowd was ready for an Ultimate Fighting Champ style match. Joe contributed with a couple good hits made possible by some awesome setting from Gwyn. Dan was rackin' up the points with his killer serve. Unfortunately, that wasn't enough to tame Brian & Ed & co. BTrey rallied to kick DHH's butt. We won't even mention that BTrey only had 3 people.

Wassup DHH? Where y'all at???

Smokin' Aces v/s Guys & Dolls (2-1)

This was a very even match up. Both teams are a great mix of trash-talkers, competitive players and folks who are "just glad to be outside". There were some awesome hustle plays from both teams. We never saw so many folks eating sand. Or maybe G&D was drunk from all the booze provided by their captain, Bennie. Bobby, of Smokin' Aces, redeemed himself from last week when he was called on some questionable hits. This week he was a monster at the net!

In Your Face v/s Spiked Punch (2-1)

"Are we there yet?" This was the theme of this matchup. These were the longest games ever. But they were the most exciting games to watch!! Troy, of Spiked Punch, caught everyone off guard. Don't judge a book by its cover. Big boy can play. His hits were very strategic and he had In Your Face running into one another trying to keep up. But, Amber and her teammates were up for the challenge. These girls are very competitive, so don't let the hair and makeup fool ya. Their teammates, Gerald and Lavarro do the dirty work and the girls do the clean up. They have a system and it works!

BTW....iTZ is looking for new scouts and player submissions for the weekly newsletter. Please send your submissions by Tuesday of each week to www.officialinthezone.com Your name will be anonymous.
